

Parent to Parent: Family Training on AD/HD®

A Multi-Session Interactive Educational Program for Adults and Parents of Children and Adolescents with AD/HD

Sponsored by the Montgomery County Chapter of CHADD, Children and Adults with Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder

The Parent to Parent: Family Training on AD/HD curriculum was developed by parents who have lived the experience and who also have had access to the best researchers and practitioners in the country. The course is based upon state of the art, evidence based information on the treatment and management of AD/HD. At the first class you will be given a book with more than 300 pages of related articles and reference resources. To access on-line references, you'll need to be a member of CHADD. The more than 350 presentation slides for the entire course will be collated by topic; handouts will be distributed at corresponding sessions.

Course fee*: $125 for CHADD members. To become a member, go to www.chadd.org. Register by April 11 to ensure your place in the class and timely receipt of materials.
